CHRIST THE KING CHURCH, HILLSIDE, NEW JERSEY
A NOTE FROM FATHER LUKE

PENTECOST SUNDAY - JUNE 5, 2022

Liturgy Readings: Act. 2:1-11; Ps. 104:1,24,29-31,34; 1 Cor. 12:3b-7,12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. Today's Gospel reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and we learn to accept forgiveness. It is the gift of the Holy Spirit that enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation. When Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit upon them, He sent His disciples to continue His work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. The feast of Pentecost celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon Jesus' first disciples. This same Holy Spirit is still with us. After breathing upon them and giving them the gift of the Holy Spirit, what does Jesus tell His disciples to do? (to forgive sins). Just as Jesus sent His disciples to forgive the sins of others, so too we are sent to bring peace to the world. We also have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us with this task. How might the Holy Spirit lead us to help bring peace to situations of conflict? (Accept all reasonable answers)

Let us pray together that the Holy Spirit will continue to work through us to bring peace to the world.
Peace, Fr. Luke

*Pope Francis Prayer Intention for June, 2022
Families : We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance holiness in their daily lives.*

" The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. As Stewards we should pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affects your actions.

& Prayers*

" You will call on me and come and pray to me and I will listen to you." JEREMIAH 29:12. Amen

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. This marks the end of the season of Lent and is fifty days after Easter Sunday. Before He returned to His Father in Heaven, the risen Jesus had spent time with His disciples and had promised to send the Holy Spirit to help them. Scripture tells us one morning the disciples, together with the Blessed Mother and some other women, were gathered together when suddenly they heard a noise like a strong wind and what looked like flames over each of them. "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit." (Acts of the Apostles 2:4). The Holy Spirit filled the disciples with courage and faith, giving them what they needed to continue sharing the Good News with others. God the Father and Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help and guide the Church and that Holy Spirit continues to be with each one of us every day. The question is are we opening our hearts to the Holy Spirit and the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord?
 Prayer: God of mercy, fill us with Your Spirit and guide us as we try to share Your peace in our world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Graduate's Prayer - God of joy and hope, we thank you for this time of graduation. Your spirit of wisdom has empowered our hard work and discipline in such a way that our hunger for learning has been nourished with knowledge and determination. In gratitude, we pray for our families and the many who sacrificed to see us to this hopeful moment. Lord, even as we faced challenges and accomplished much, may your grace cover our fears so that we may stay encouraged about the future. Amen (Author Unknown)
